THE opposition to Chinese immigration in Australia, as in the United States, shows no signs of diffinution. In Australia, it is true, it has not taken the form, except on very rare occasions, of personal ill-treatment, and then the law has stepped in and accorded its protection to the aliens. But the jealousy and dislike entertained by the labouring classes to the Chinese in the Australian colonies continues unabated, and fresh efforts are being made to secure their exclusion. A Chinese boy seven years of ago was missed In one colony it is proposed to raise the the same time. Neither is it a rare occurrence for However, he was received by his Consul with all the French soldiers to desert, especially the the regard due to a personage of distinction; Legion men.

The writer has been in Haiphong over two years, and with the exception of a fine row of brick houses built by Mr. A. R. Marty and two at their first interview, Mr. Souza informed the iron houses erected by the Eastern Extension Telegraph Co. for their employes, is unable to zuela, on one of the local Banks to cover_the report any improvement; the same dirty cafés, (with a few additional new ones) remain as in 1884. As yet there is not one good road com. that he had been appointed Consul for the Repupleted, plenty of work has been commenced, a canal is to be made to run round the town with grand boulevards, and several roads have been begun, but, alas! the dollars are wanting, and the or four days after the above conversation had improvements must waituntil the Customs, Taxes, Gambling Farm, etc., and other imposts are sufficiently remunerative to bear the expense. Meanwhile a few days agoa Teleg. 1ph clerk was assassinated at the "Bamboos," a station on the Red River between Haiphong and Hanol, where steam launobes are continually asseing. About the same date a junk, returning from Tuyen Quan with two Custom House agants on board, was attacked at the Elephant Mountain, about 15 miles from Haiphong, and but for the timely a suitable house and prepare it for his arrival arrival of a steam bunch belonging to Messrs. THE SUPPOSED VENEZUELAN MISSION TO CHINA.

"Caracas" writes as follows to the Shanghai Courier: - My attention was drawn, not very by the Mercury, that the Government of Vene-Aku was in the Western Market buying pro-visions, when the defendant picked his pocket, merce with China, and that General Crespo, who was already said to be on his way to China, ha Sentenced to fourteen days' hard labour and been entrusted with that important mission. Your evening contemporary also informed his readers that Mr. Soura, Consul for Venezuela Yau Awong, jinricksb. coolie, was charged at Hongkong, had been ordered to join General with having out and wounded a coolie named Crospo's mission. A few days after this news was published, the N. C. Daily News announced The men were having a meal together when Mr. Souza's arrival here; and so confirmed had been informed that General Crospo was Fined $5, or in default three weeks' hard in Japan, en route for Shaughei, that he had been received in special audience by the Mikado; also that the General was expected to leave Pun Ayat, married woman, was fined $25 for Yokohama by the first Japanese mail steamer unlicensed possession of prepared opique, and in leaving for our port. The news was no doubt default of payment she was sent to gaol for of little interest to the majority of the community of Shanghai. Very few, I presume, took any notice of it, and it is perhaps already kiwan, was similarly punished for retailing forgotten; but as I am a citizen of Venezuela, and the name of one of the greatest living men of that country, who only a very short time ago left the high position of President of the Union, had been associated with the information published by your local contemporaries. NGL-I-S-H-AND-CH-INESE DICTIONARY.

WITH THE PUNTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION. Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiver as and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objests in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best attained, and dispensing with those vast margins terized Chinese publications. To the illustrate the vast scope of the work following facts are submitted for consideration :-Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16.000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst Hongkong Hotel Company's Shares-$186 per this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese characother elementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various applications and equivalents of different words which space achieving a clearness not previously this work contains more than five times as For practical purposes the arrangement of pany, Praya Central. to communicate effectively with natives who the work will be found indispensable to all themselves it explains subjects fully with which To parties resident in England and interested
